

Strawberry Lake Road, Flathead County, Montana, 17.46 Acres

$1,300,000

- Big Game, House, Water Rights, Wildlife Viewing

See 3 lakes from this Montana mountain home! Perched at the base of the Swan Mountains is a rare 17.46-acre property that looks over the southern half of the Flathead Valley including Flathead Lake, Echo Lake and Mud Lake. This is the only residential property that exists on the popular Strawberry Lake Road on the east side of Kalispell. With National Forest on the north border and State Land on the west border, this private piece of Montana offers a 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home, a guest cabin, and a maintenance building that houses a large generator. The main house offers a vaulted living room area with expansive windows, a rock stacked fireplace, tongue and groove blue pine ceilings and walls, a main level master bedroom and bathroom, a full working kitchen, an upstairs loft bonus room, and an outdoor viewing deck. Downstairs is a walk out lower level that has two more bedrooms, a full bathroom and laundry room. Both the main home and the guest cabin have breathtaking mountain, lake and valley views from every window. Additionally, there is a solar power system in place that can be used for the property or the power that is generated can be sold back to the power company. Elk, deer, bears, and numerous wildlife visits this location on a daily basis. With room to build additional cabins if desired, this unique property has unlimited potential to be a special event center, a vacation rental, a private residence or a pristine mountain retreat. Built primarily for the outdoor enthusiast, and limited only by the new owner's imagination, this is truly Montana in its full splendor!
