

Rafter J Ranch, Stillwater County, Montana, 2,104.00 Acres

$2,700,000

- Agriculture, Big Game, Equestrian, Snow sports, Stream/River, Upland Bird, Wildlife Viewing

2,104+/- acres of beautiful box canyons, incredible vistas and buttes, and a stunning rimrock that runs all the way from the NW corner to the SE corner of the ranch. The Rafter J Ranch is located south of the Musselshell River in the Big Coulee Valley of central Montana and is as unique a landscape and amazing views as Montana has to offer. This property has helped support numerous species of wildlife including elk, deer, antelope, and upland game birds. Besides from the wildlife, cattle and horses have been grazing on the native grasses that cover these pastures. The improvements on this property include a modest manufactured home, a 40x48 ft machine shed with an attached heated shop, functional corrals, and several other smaller outbuildings. Additionally, an artesian well that gravity feeds concrete stock tanks to every pasture of the ranch. The Rafter J Ranch is a fully functioning ranch with low inputs and everything you need to start or grow an operation in place.
