$1,575,000

- Big Game, Fishing, Lake/Pond, Pond, River Frontage, Snow sports, Stream/River, Timberland, Upland Bird, Water Rights, Water Sports, Waterfowl, Wildlife Viewing

147.5 acres in the gorgeous Bull River Valley along Hwy 56 with unobstructed views of the towering Cabinet Mountains! Nestled between USFS land and the Cabinet Mountain Wilderness, this is one of the few remaining large tracts in the entire valley that does not have a conservation easement or restrictions. With the Bull River meandering through the east side and mature trees and build sites on the west side, this property has a little bit of everything. Bull River runs year-round, there is an abundant spring and well, and power is to the property. Just minutes to Bull Lake and the Ross Creek Cedars, this area has endless recreation opportunities, including trails, roads, great fishing, and excellent hunting. With no covenants or restrictions, build your dream home, several cabins, or split the property into a couple of parcels. Bring the animals and enjoy the stunning scenery of the Bull River Valley!
