

TBD County Road 25 E, White County, Illinois, 15.43 Acres

$75,000

It's not often a smaller hunting tract like this comes up for sale in this area — especially one that offers both accessibility and strong habitat. Whether you're looking to purchase your first piece of hunting ground or add to your existing portfolio, this 15.43-acre wooded property is a solid opportunity.

Located just 3 miles southwest of Enfield, the property sits off a quiet country road with easy access. The surrounding area features mature timber, natural cover, and a year-round water source across the road on neighboring land, helping to attract and hold deer and other game. The layout offers great potential for stand placement and habitat improvement

Small, well-located hunting properties like this one don't stay on the market long — don't miss your chance.
