$445,000

- Agriculture, Big Game, House, Snow sports, Timberland, Wildlife Viewing

Discover the perfect blend of year-round living or recreational retreat on this 37-acre property tucked away in the Colorado foothills. The land offers a beautiful mix of open meadows and towering pines, with the home set in an elevated clearing that ensures privacy, protection, and stunning views in all directions. The land directly adjoins thousands of acres of BLM land making it ideal for exploring, hunting, or simply enjoying the peace and quiet. No HOA or Covenants! Whether you're looking for a private residence, a mountain retreat, or a recreational basecamp, this property has the improvements in place and the potential to grow with your vision. This land has good year-round access and it is located just 35 minutes from Cañon City and an hour and a half from Colorado Springs. This property directly adjoins public lands and is located in GMU 58, which is known for having quality mule deer and elk. Pronghorn thrive here as well, with some of the biggest bucks found on private land. Each year hunters harvest strong numbers of bull elk. Agricultural/Residential Zoning - Taxes were $482.44 in 2024
