Bobby spent his childhood summers on his uncle's farm in southeast Missouri, where he developed a lifelong passion for the outdoors and machinery. A proud lifelong resident of the Fosterburg area, he retired from Laclede Steel in 2000 after 30 years of dedicated service, then continued his hardworking spirit in the construction industry. An avid outdoorsman, Bobby enjoys riding his SxS, spending time in nature, and cherishing his weekends attending church and living a quality, grounded lifestyle. Since 2011, Bobby has brought that same commitment and integrity to his real estate career—specializing in residential, farm, equestrian, commercial, and recreational properties. He has successfully represented buyers and sellers across Illinois, helping each client navigate their real estate journey with professionalism and care. Whether you're buying or selling, Bobby would be honored to help you achieve your goals and make your next move a success.
