Oklahoma Mountain Top

The anticipation of fall stirs every sportsman's soul. All through the summer months, we dream about brilliant fall colors, the chill in the morning air, the rustling of leaves as a whitetail buck approaches. If this stirs your soul, let me introduce you to one of Oklahoma's premier hunting properties.

Oklahoma Mountain Top is located in the rugged Jack Fork Mountains of Southeastern Oklahoma, this spectacular 3,308.01 acre ranch offers a first class hunting experience. This property features a rustic hunting cabin, 15 acre stocked lake, multiple other stocked ponds and a wide range of hunting for Whitetail Deer, Black Bear, Wild Hog, Eastern Turkey and many other game and non-game species.

This ranch has tremendous topography and stunning forest consisting of Oak, Hickory and Pine and a abundance of water including 8 ponds and several wet weather creeks. This ranch offers miles of back country ATV or horseback riding and hiking in this very secluded and private setting.

Description: 3,308.01 acres located in Pittsburg County, Oklahoma, which ranks in the top 2 every year for Whitetail total deer harvest. This ranch is centered between McAlester, Atoka and Clayton Oklahoma. Property is also less than 10 miles from Sardis Lake which is known as one of Oklahoma's premier fishing lakes and is also ideal for summer water sports.

Terrain: Magnificent mountain land, sitting in the Jack fork Mountains. Elevation Ranges from 1,400 ft atop Jack Fork Mountain to 740 feet in Rush Canyon. The many mountain tops create stunning views and panorama's of the surrounding landscape for any outdoor experience.

Water: There are 8 ponds and one 15 acre lake and several wet weather creeks.
